Declared Major: _____

Minor or other Certificate Program: _____

Anticipated Graduation Date: _____

Requirement	Courses to be Taken (ie. how requirement will be fulfilled)	Projected Completion Date
ISIS 100
ISIS 140 / EGR 150/ COMPSCI 196
Elective 1
Elective 2
Elective 3

The ISIS Certificate requires six courses:

- A. ISIS 100: Perspectives on Information Science and Information Studies
- B. For non-computer science and non-engineering majors, ISIS 140: Fundamentals of Web-based Multimedia Communications. For engineering and computer science majors, EGR 150 or COMPSCI 196
- C. Three 100- or 200-level electives selected from a list of ISIS-approved courses
- D. ISIS 200: Research Capstone Course

No more than three courses may originate in a single department and no more than two courses that are counted toward the ISIS Certificate may also satisfy the requirements of any major, minor, or other certificate program. (NOTE: Pratt students may count additional ISIS courses toward their major elective requirements.) Only students who have officially declared their major may enroll in the program, although all students may take ISIS courses on a first-come/first-served basis, with ISIS certificate students having preference.
